2009 Toronto Chinese Chess Championship Set for July

Jointly organized by the Toronto Xiangqi Association and the Scarborough Seniors Chess Club, the 2009 Toronto Xiangqi Open will take the form of a 6 rounds of Swiss tournament, to be held three straight Saturdays – July 4, July 11 and July 18 (2 games per week), followed by final matches for first and third place on July 25. All rounds begin at 1 pm at the Milliken Park Community Center (4325 McCowan Road, Toronto, ON - South of Steeles, East of McCowan).

The open tournament is divided into Individual, Senior (65 years old or up) and youth group (age 17 or below). Trophies and gifts will be awarded to the eight top finishers, as well as the top three senior and youth players.

All are welcome to play; prior registration is welcome. Or just drop by, and we'll introduce you to one of the world's great games. The cost of entering the tournament is a modest $3 for members and $10 for non-members.

The Toronto Open is a tradition dating back to 1978. It gives players from throughout the GTA the chance to meet and play against the city's leading masters.
